When we file 990 the big ones will be on schedule but at that point nobody will care.

Got it. But we are no obligation to disclose publicly our Schedule B on our IRS 990 form, right ?

Also, it appears that we have only disclosed contributions of $25,000 or more in the past on Schedule B. I will check with Watkins Uiberall and get an explanation.

Subject: crime commission

Ben,

I don't see any problem with the Crime Commission (a separate 501c3) accepting donations which it intends to make available to the city for purposes of hiring police. You may know this, but the crime commission probably has to disclose those donors and donations in excess of $5000 on Schedule B. See attached.

Thanks

Mary Ann
